If you've already paid your balance in full or think we haven't credited a payment to your account, please call 1-800-829-0115, and have your payment information available to review with us. You can also contact us by mail. Fill out the Contact information section, detach, and send it to us with any correspondence or documentation including proof of payment.

If we don't hear from you

- If you don't pay the amount due, we may seize ("levy") any state tax refund to which you're entitled on or after December 1, 2011. - If you still have an outstanding balance after we make these seizures, we may send you a notice giving you a right to a hearing before the IRS Office of Appeals, if you have not already received such a notice. We may then seize ("levy") or take possession of your other property or your rights to property. Property includes:
 - Wages, real estate commissions, and other income
 - Bank accounts
 - Business assets
 - Personal assets (including your car and home)
 - Social Security benefits
- If you don't pay the amount due or call us to make payment arrangements, we can file a Notice of Federal Tax Lien on your property at any time, if we haven't already done so.
- If the lien is in place, you may find it difficult to sell or borrow against your property. The tax lien would also appear on your credit report—which may harm your credit rating—and your creditors would also be publicly notified that the IRS has priority to seize your property.
- If you don't pay your tax debt, we have the right to seize ("levy") your property.
